In Loving Memory of Jon Brice

September 5, 1967 - March 27, 1985

*Do not stand at my grave & weep; I am not there -
I do not sleep.*

I am a thousand winds that blow; I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on endless seas, & the spring rain through tears you see.

When you awaken in the morning's hush; I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight;

I'm the brightest star at night.

*Do not stand at my grave and cry; I am not there -
I did not die.*

A boyish grin - a wave of his hand; showed Jon was a sensitive, caring young man.

Tall in stature - somewhat shy; all who knew him still ask why?

He chose to burden himself instead of his friends; while inwardly wrestling with becoming a man.

A dangerous age - mis-understood; we all feel the pain & maybe we should -

Of words left unsaid, a phone call not placed;

a praise

a promise

or a love could erase.

To fill a void, unlock a mind - bring his soul out of the rain & buy more time.

He wasn't a star but needed to shine - we may never know what thundered through his mind on that day; or what problems came to bear that swept his life away . . .

But the music played, & the lights grew dim & the powerful shot hollered out for him.

It made people think -

It made people cry -

It brought people together & made friends try -

Without words Jon helped others in this way.

Psalm 116:15
"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His Saints"

- LOVE -

Love is an echo,
an imprisoning future
of tender feelings.

Dianna Marie Thompson

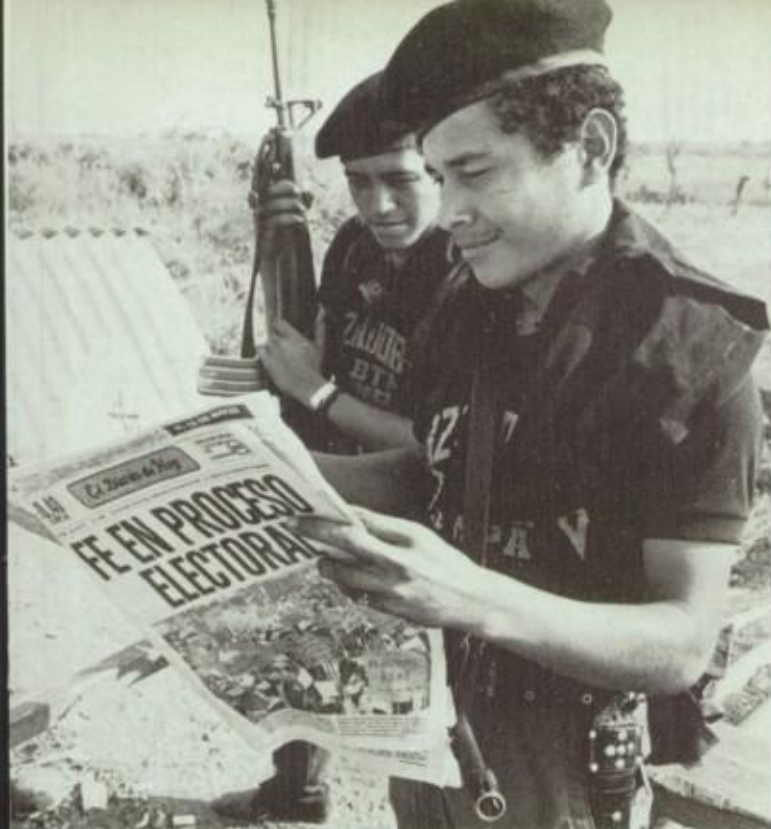

Dianna had touched the lives of so many, both young and old alike. She was a very special kind of person who could allow the Love of her Lord to shine through her and touch others. This is what made her so very sensitive to the needs of others. She valued, very highly, her many friendships.

If Dianna could leave one thought for us, it would be to share her Lord more, in each and every way. For it's through His love True friendships are built, and True caring and sharing take place. We look forward to seeing her again in the new world our Lord has promised us.

Thank you, Diana, for loving us so much.

Her father, mother, sister.

The "Off the Wall" editor, Gregg Gerber, a senior this year, was the only remaining staff member from the 1984 yearbook. Gregg worked hard to get the book and the staff put together. He had to work with a small staff which was very difficult. Gregg was not only our boss but our friend. Good luck Gregg.

"Off the Wall," inspired by an undersized volunteer staff, was put together through sheer devotion and school spirit. Without a sponsor until the summer of '84, the yearbook staff could not be finalized until the first of the school year. Driven by sponsor Richard Gross, we spent long hours meeting several deadlines until its completion on February 22, 1985. We, the staff, assistants, and photographers, worked very hard to distribute a yearbook of which to be proud and remember for years to come. We sincerely hope you enjoy "Off the Wall."

All work and no play ...

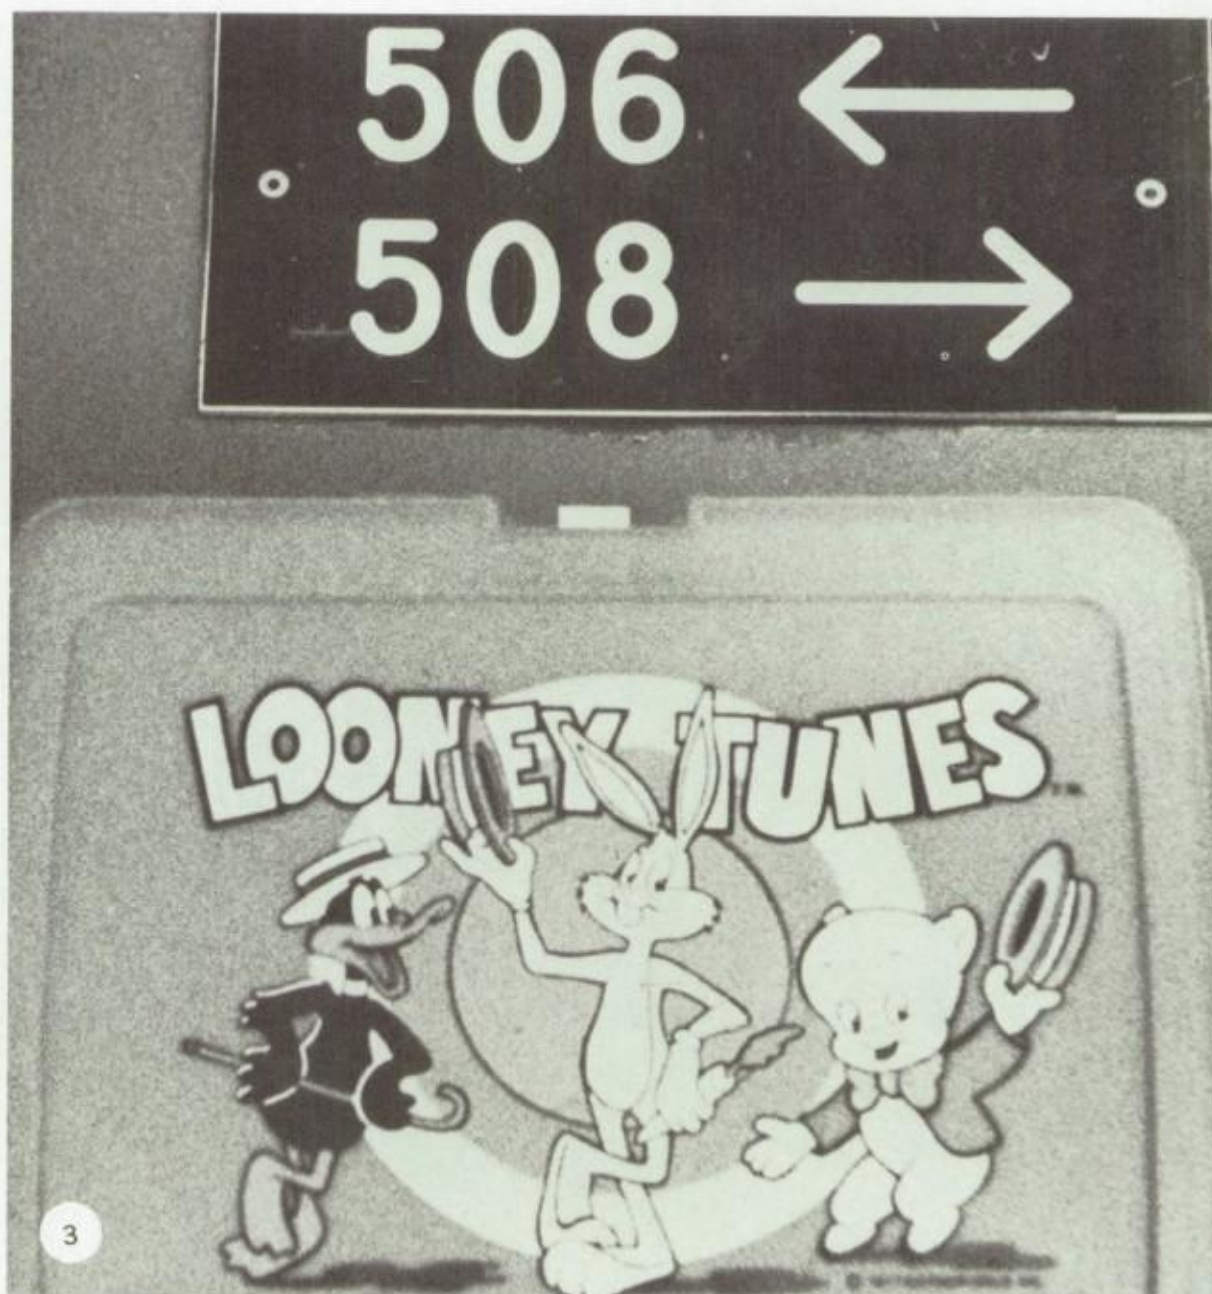

Our adviser, Mr. Richard Gross, saved the yearbook this year by offering to be sponsor. He carried us through our most difficult problems, he supported us, and even yelled at us when we truly needed it. We are grateful for everything he has done and hope that we may somehow pay him back. Here is a look at Mr. Gross being a little "Off the Wall."

Welcome

to the 1985 Thunderbird High School Yearbook. In the past 12 years of this school's history, there has never been a book quite like this. Tradition was forced to move over when we named it "Off the Wall." To meet the demands of the students, we poured more creativity into this book than ever before. This is actually two books in one, overflowing with Student Life.

We've worked hard to make this book special for everyone, and hope you will enjoy it for years to come.
